Background

The Southwestern Oregon Workforce Investment Board (SOWIB) is a non-profit organization serving as the local workforce development board for Coos, Curry, and Douglas Counties. Its mission is to develop, oversee and implement the area's strategic plan for workforce development and allocate federal and other resources to appropriate workforce development activities and services, as prescribed in the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).

The South Coast Regional Early Learning Hub is the region's early learning hub for Coos, Curry and Coastal Douglas Counties. From Reedsport to Brookings, we support the alignment of services for young children and their families, so they have the resources they need to thrive. We work within and across sectors to promote equity and systems change in our region. SOWIB serves as SCREL's backbone agency.
